

I fail to comprehend how allowing major networks to increase their share of ownership of local radio, tv and newspapers will promote diversity. This is nothing more than another Republican ploy to sell out to big business and squash fair competition. This erodes checks and balances and homogenizes news and views solely expressed in the interest of big business and political allies. America continues its path toward self destruction in the name of greed and power!